

I reside in the North Fork district with my husband of thirty years, Gary Stradley, a 1973 UHS graduate. I have two children, Jessica, a 1995 UHS graduate, and Broc, a 2013 UHS graduate. I also have three grandchildren.

I am a graduate of Bloom Carroll High School and Ohio State School of Cosmetology. I have been employed by J C Penney for twenty-eight years as a Paul Mitchell Market Trainer, Manager, and Designer. I was elected to the North Fork Board of Education in 2011. I have attended the OSBA NBM Academy, Parent/Professional Communication, School Finance, and Board President Academy. I serve on the Finance Committee, am the legislative representative, and Board President for 2014.
