Hear What Our Scholarship Winners Have to Say

"The Student-View Scholarship application was easy and quick. This scholarship will take some of the burden off my academic financing. I thank Student Insights for helping me to succeed in my college career." Andrew D.
Butler High School
Pennsylvania

"I applied to this scholarship because I wanted to do as many scholarships I could. The process was really easy and I am so happy I applied. Being able to fill out a survey on colleges in my state to get scholarship money toward college is incredible."

Sadia F.
Ocean City High School
New Jersey

"The Student Insights scholarship program was very straight-forward and easy to do mainly all that was asked was your opinion. Most scholarships want essays and your test scores or transcripts, but this scholarship was a survey. The survey was very easy to follow and you had a choice to directly give colleges feedback about their processes. I really liked the survey and I believe it was a great use on my time."

Christina T.
Rich Central High School
Illinois

"I learned of the Student-View Scholarship program offer through my high school counselor. I admit I was not familiar with this particular opportunity prior to her recommendation. She encouraged me to apply, so I did. It was a very simple process. I am glad I took her advice. I will certainly put the award to good use as I pursue a degree in engineering. Thank you for this opportunity!"

Jared A.
Woodland High School
Alabama

"I applied to this scholarship because I saw it as an opportunity to minimize some of the costs of college. As a high school senior I was really busy throughout the year and the application process was simple and quick so it was truly an ideal scholarship. The scholarship will help me and my family whether it goes towards books or tuition. It is such a blessing to receive this scholarship."

Kayla C.
Hillsborough High School
Florida

"I am truly grateful for my participation in the Student-View Scholarship contest. It was one of the easiest applications to complete because it centered on my opinions as a student. Student Insights gave me not only a scholarship to further my education, but an opportunity to have my opinions heard. It is an amazing program that serves as a resource for both colleges and students – offering information to college and opportunities to students"

Jennifer L.
Franklin High School
Wisconsin
